Route 11 is now OPEN! Thank you for all your patience! The DOT has replaced a 6 foot culvert with a concrete natural bottom bridge.

David Salazar and Chandler Hersom Grad for Fire fighter 1&2, Luke Alexander graduated from AEMT, moving to Paramedic Classes, congratulations on meeting your goals! Thank you all for everything you do.

Weekly Update on Select Board activities:

Spoke to resident about gravel pit on Cape Rd, Peter Talbot will be doing further investigation.

We are having issues with someone bringing debris and boulder and blocking roads, logs and huge boulder. If you see any of this activity, please contact the police as this is VERY dangerous. Sedgley Rd is under construction and will be local traffic only.

Trees have been placed at the Solar Farm at 697 Sokokis Ave, and once again, prior to the farm going live they will have a fee of $130,000 to pay to the town.

Please use caution on JoJoy Rd, the road has taken hard wear while Rt 11 was closed. We appreciate your patience until it can be repaired.

PWD repaired E2 valve issue.

MSAD#6 School Budget passed.

The MMDY Summer Camp has very little space left, please contact Madison for more information.

Met with the Comprehensive Plan committee to give some direction.

The town is looking to fill a full time paramedic position, please contact EMS Director Down McAllister for additional information. This position includes retirement benefits, IPP, PTO and more.

We are looking for some volunteers for the fire department, please contact Chief Emil Braley for more information.
