Weekly update for week ending July 5, 2025

Road Crew:

Monday and ½ of Tuesday- Assisted Parks & Rec with preparing the fire works launching area for Thursday night. This was a requirement from the Fire Marshal's Office in order to get the necessary permits. They removed several trees and mulched the area, making a safe area to launch from.

½ of Tuesday and Wednesday- Cut back roadside growth on all of Shaving Hill Rd and started Allen Hill.

Thursday- At the shop due to reduced crew size.

Friday- Holiday

Starting the week of July 7 through the week of July 14, the crew will be preparing selected roads for paving. The focus will be on Doles Ridge Rd.

Acting Director:

Collected existing outdated policies, plans, and programs. Began reviewing, revising and replacing the Bloodborne Pathogens Exposure Control Plan, Confined Space Policy, and Hazard Communications Program.

Found and reviewed existing job descriptions and researched other Public Works Departments job descriptions.

Reviewed department budget and entered the weekly numbers into the ledger, DPW is currently 38.8% spent.

Ordered a new hydraulic reservoir tank for plow truck #13.

Scheduled F-550 for service at Rowe Ford for transmission issue and no A/C- truck was dropped off on 7/7

Throughout the week, I communicated with the Roads Foreman in person and via phone.
